Building bridges between relevant actors to End FGM 2014

"The creation of synergies to develop, share and coordinate actions, policies and legal frameworks to end FGM in countries of residence and of origin." 2014

The recently formed END FGM European Network is engaged in reflection to gain a better understanding of what it means to build bridges and work with Diaspora. Our first step has been to define building bridges as: "the creation of synergies to develop, share and coordinate actions, policies and legal frameworks to end FGM in countries of residence and of origin."
